

Class Schedule - Same for all shows

March 2/3, 2019

April 6/7, 2019

ACADEMY RULES

The shows will be governed by the IHSA Academy Division Rules. Please refer to www.iowahorsheshowsassociation.com for details or contact show manager for information.

Horses

- Academy (lesson) horses must be school horses owned or leased by the riding academy and regularly used in a lesson program for more than one rider and must not be in training.
- Academy (lesson) horses may be entered in academy classes, show practice, or open classes

Equipment

- Unless otherwise specified, academy classes are Saddle Seat and require a flat English saddle. Any type bridle may be used

Riding Attire (Academy)

- Refer to IHSA Academy Division Rules
- Helmets meeting ASTM safety standards required

Academy Judging

- Academy Classes will be divided as circumstances warrant, with a maximum of six (6) exhibitors per split.
- Academy Classes - Horses are not to be judged.
- Academy Classes - to be judged on the ability of the rider to control and show the horse to the best advantage. Correct diagonals and leads are important.
- Command/Horsemanship classes to be judged on the rider's ability to follow instructions. May be asked for stops, circles, reverse at any gait, etc.

GENERAL RULES

Age and Eligibility

- Rider's age determined as of December 1, 2018.
- Once a rider has cantered, return to the walk/trot at this show is not allowed.
- Rider may not return to a more novice level once he/she has advanced.
- A show rider is one who has participated in a class requiring a riding habit at any show.
- An academy rider is any rider enrolled in a lesson program who has not shown in a class requiring a riding habit.

2019 Academy High Point Awards
